WELCOME TO ST. PETERSBURG

St. Petersburg has always been the cultural center of our country, attracting tourists from all over the world. Rich historical heritage, beautiful architecture and continuously improving infrastructure predetermine the city's success and popularity. Today St. Petersburg is ready to meet the growing demand for cruises to the city with its new and modern passenger port facility.

ST. PETERSBURG IS ONE OF THE MOST POPULAR TOURIST DESTINATIONS IN THE BALTIC SEA

Passenger port of Saint Petersburg:

- Modern passenger terminals
- Unique transport infrastructure
- Highest safety standards

ST. PETERSBURG IS THE SEA CAPITAL OF RUSSIA

Cruise ship passengers can stay in St. Petersburg visa-free up to

72
hours

St. Petersburg is among Top 10 European destinations and Top 25 destinations of the world according to Tripadvisor Traveller's choice.

Infrastructure of the city is constantly evolving. Besides the brand-new Passenger port of Saint Petersburg the airport terminal "Pulkovo" was also very recently commissioned and is already ensuring comfort and convenience of air passengers. For a quick trip to Moscow or Helsinki one can take the high-speed trains "Sapsan" and "Allegro".

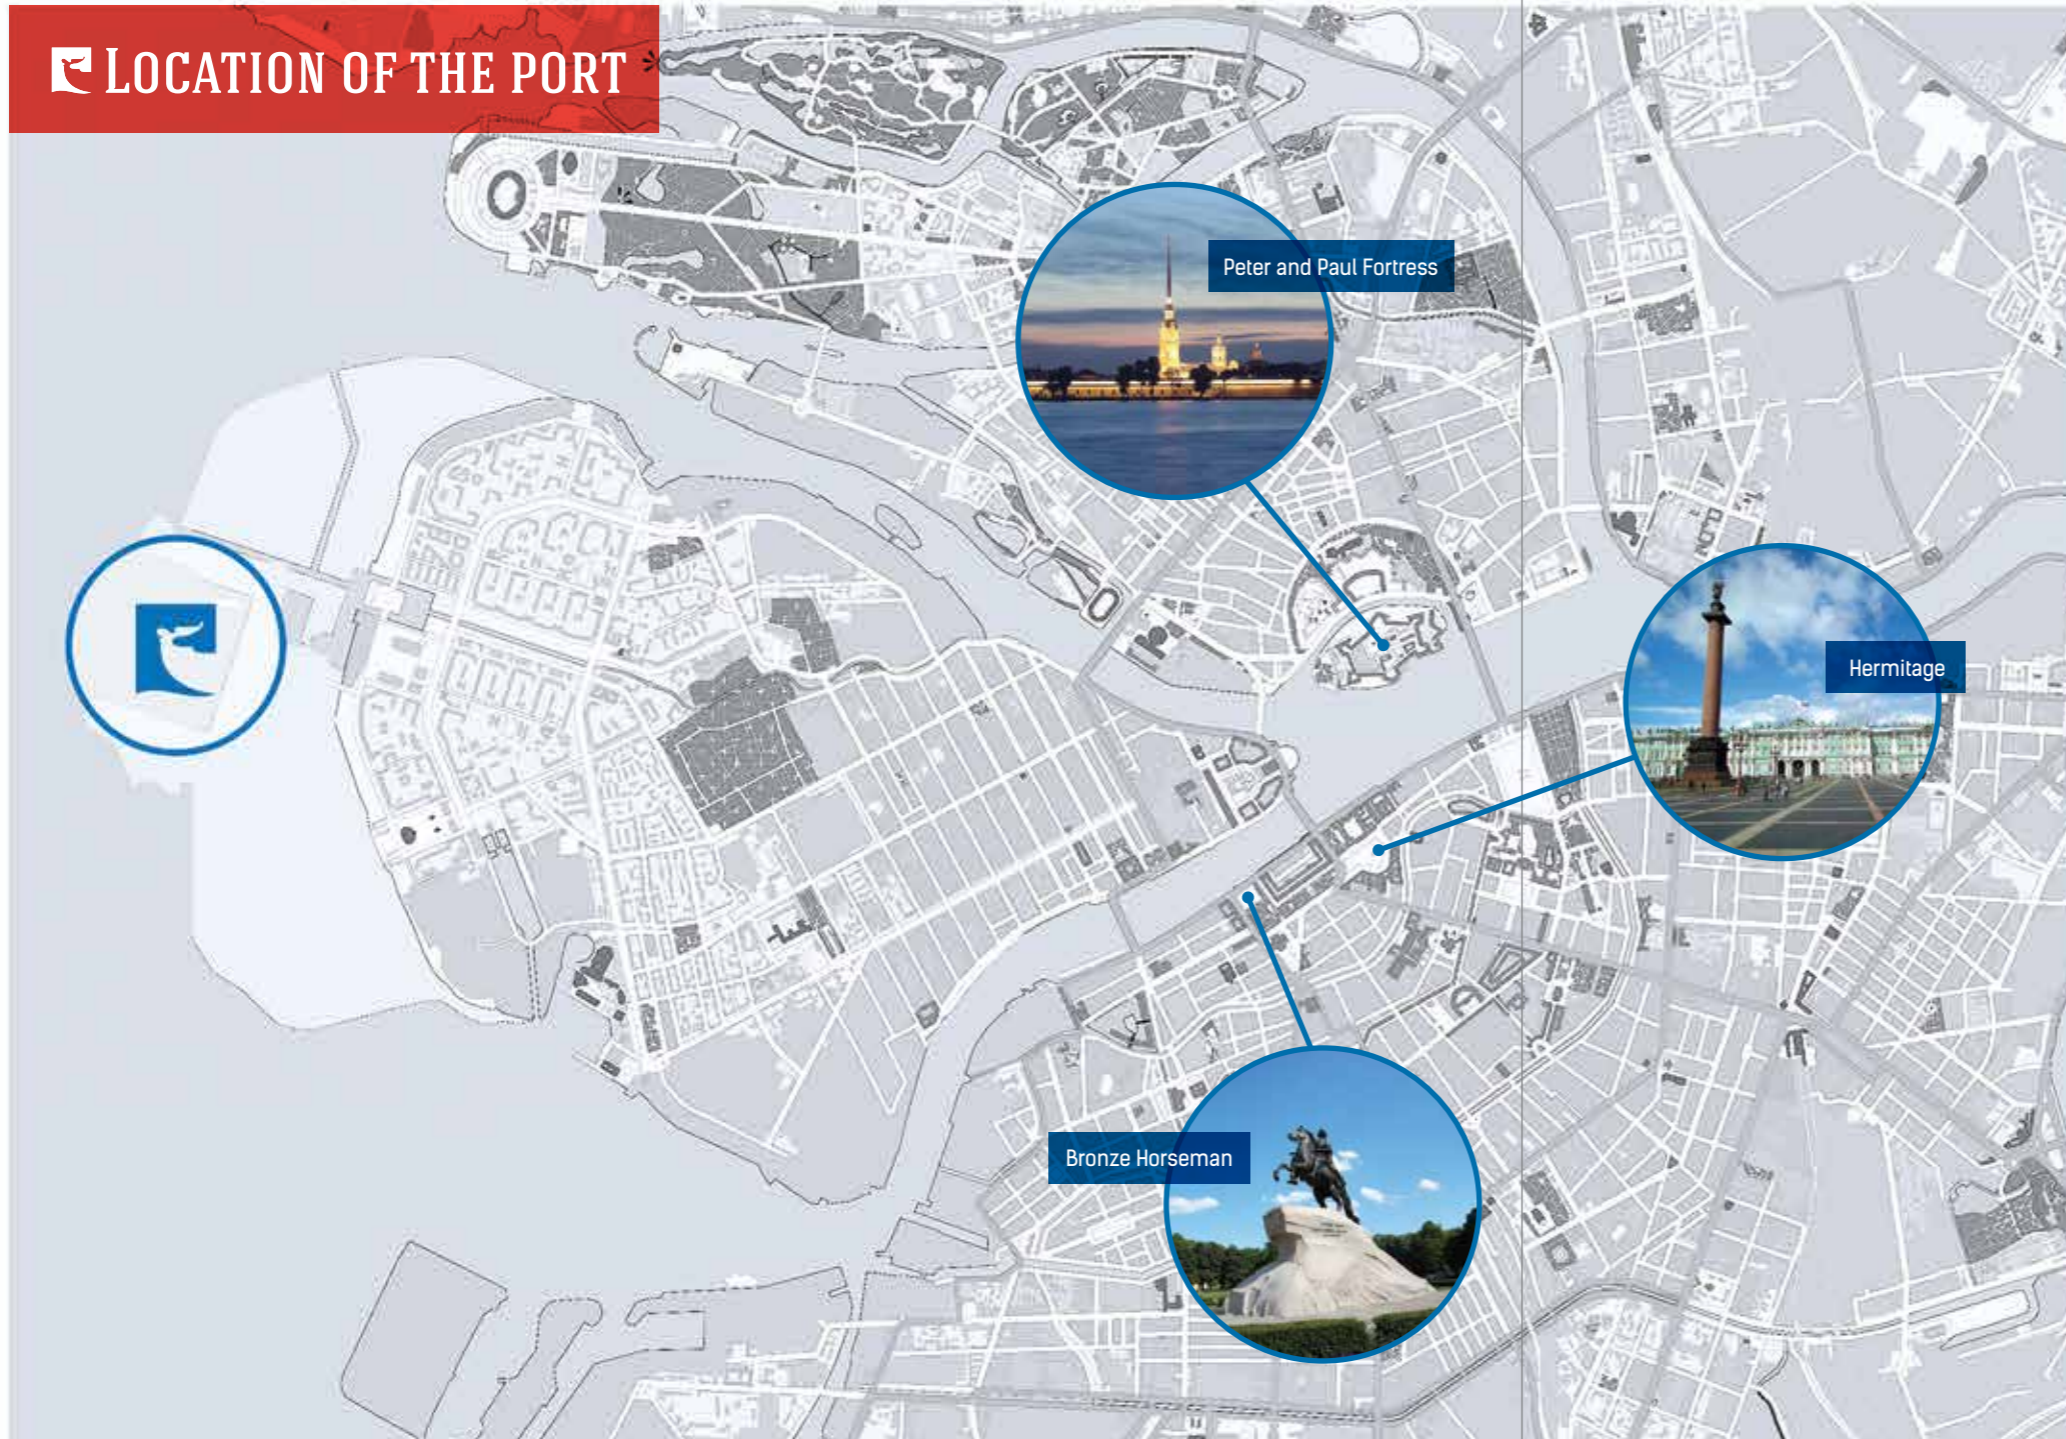

During autumn and winter the spectacular transformation of the city's landscapes is even more enjoyable with the low prices on city tours and absence of crowds around the main attractions, making St. Petersburg the ultimate winter cruise destination.

Passenger port of Saint Petersburg is an active participant of the Baltic cruise ports' project on promoting winter cruises.

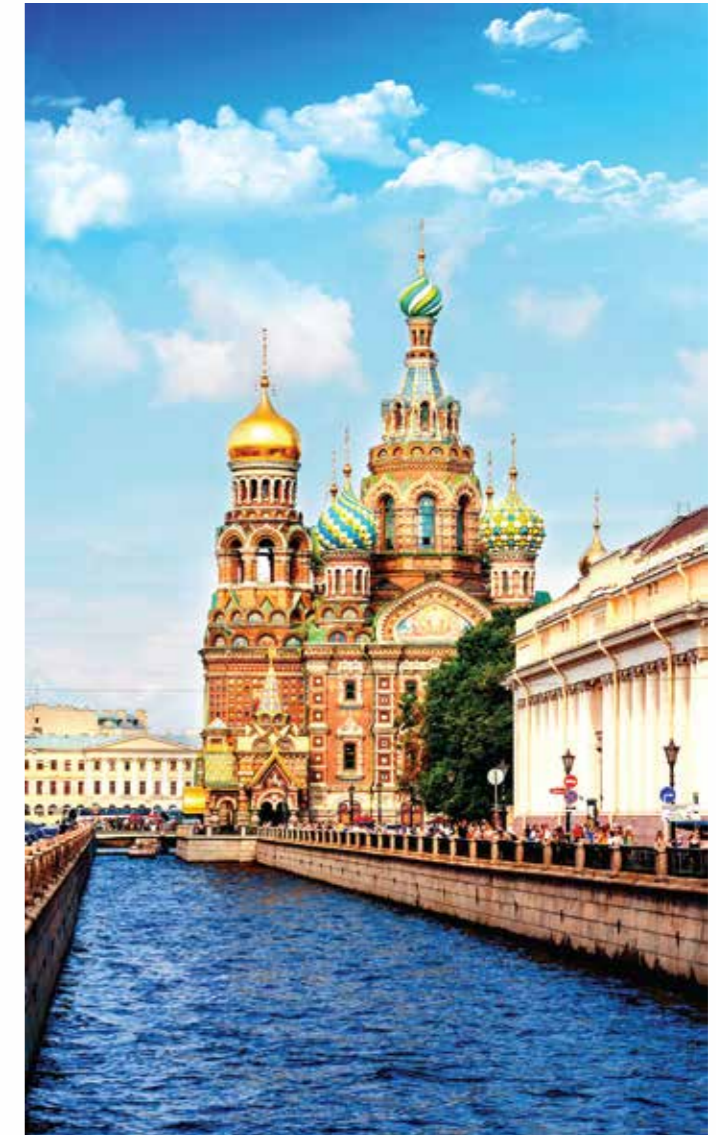

During the low season – from January 15th till April 30th and from October 1st till December 25th – the cost of infrastructure provision services at Passenger port of Saint Petersburg is reduced by 50%.

LOCATION OF THE PORT

Passenger port of Saint Petersburg is located close to the historic center of St. Petersburg (15-20 minutes by car).

ST. PETERSBURG - WINNER OF THE «2014 PORTS & DESTINATIONS AWARDS» IN THE NOMINATION «BEST DESTINATION EXPERIENCE»

St. Petersburg, according to the magazine Cruise Insight, became the best cruise destination offering quality tourist programs for groups.

The main goal of the "Ports & Destinations Awards" contest is to evaluate ports and destinations in terms of port infrastructure development, quality of services and shore excursions for tourist groups, diversity of tourist programs for individual travelers.
